

◎Inpatient

For patients with an admission appointment

People with an admission appointment should visit the Admissions Reception on the first floor where staff will take you through the necessary paperwork.

For people whose admission date has not yet been scheduled, the hospital will make contact at a later date.

Procedures on the day of admission (first floor ◎ Admissions Reception) from 8:45 a.m.

(However, this does not apply to specified cases)

<What you need for the admission procedures>

* Essential items to bring

Patient registration card, health insurance card and medical certificate, seal stamp, admission application form, eligibility certificate for ceiling amount application (for those applying for high cost medial treatment)

People who have claimed or wish to claim medical welfare (public subsidies for medical and surgical care for disabled children under 18 (Ryoiku Iryo), for disabled persons aged 18 and over (Kosei Iryo), premature infants (Ikusei Iryo), etc.), or worker's compensation are requested to inform staff of this during the admission procedures. Also, people being admitted to hospital following a traffic accident related injury are asked to inform staff of this.

Should any details on your health insurance card change during your inpatient stay, or if you lose eligibility, ensure you inform the ◎ Admissions Reception on the first floor of the matter.

If you wish to change the day or time of your admission, or cancel it altogether, contact the Admissions Reception in advance by phone.
